

Invitation to Tithe

"The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it, the world, and those who live in it" (Psalm 24.1). All that we are and have is God's gracious gift entrusted to our care. In response to God's abundant love and mercy we are called to live the steward's life of joyful gratitude. The biblical steward moves beyond burden to freedom, beyond legalism to spirituality. The tithe is not a mere obligation; it is a grateful response to God's grace.

As God's covenant people, we commit ourselves to tithe. We affirm the tithe as the minimum standard for Christian giving and invite you to join us in this spiritual discipline.

Ronald Schoenett

Carol P. Myers

Trishy Spiller

Sophia Mathonnet-VanderWell

E. Wayne Centworth

John Schleich

Earle H. S. Hall

Terry H.-C. Fairing

Over L. J. Brill

Nola Albert

Thomas A. Boogart

Tithing Task Force
Reformed Church in America

Commitment to Tithe

As God's covenant people we commit ourselves to tithe. We affirm the tithe as the minimum standard for Christian giving and invite you to join us in this spiritual discipline.

I (we) will do this by:

- continuing to give 10 percent or more
- beginning to give 10 percent or more
- growing in my (our) giving from _____ percent toward the goal of giving 10 percent or more in the next three years

Name

Name

Keep this section of the card as a reminder of your commitment.

Commitment to Tithe

As God's covenant people we commit ourselves to tithe. We affirm the tithe as the minimum standard for Christian giving and invite you to join us in this spiritual discipline.

I (we) will do this by:

- continuing to give 10 percent or more
- beginning to give 10 percent or more
- growing in my (our) giving from _____ percent toward the goal of giving 10 percent or more in the next three years

Name(s)

Address

Return this section of the card to:

R.C.A. Office of Stewardship and Communication
475 Riverside Drive - 18th Floor
New York, NY 10115